

ATTENTION

CSUN Students!

As a partnership between Department of Kinesiology and the Department of Police Services, R.A.D. self-defense for men and women will now be offered for 1 unit of course credit!

Enroll for the fall or spring semester at MyNorthridge portal!

Rape Aggression Defense for women

Course # 196RAD

Monday, 5:00-6:40 p.m. • Redwood 251

R.A.D. is a program of realistic, self-defense tactics and techniques. R.A.D. systems is a comprehensive course for women that begins with awareness, prevention, risk reduction and avoidance. This course will also include R.A.D. keychain and aerosol defense.

Resisting Aggression with Defense, self-defense for men

Course # 196RAM

Tuesday, 4:00-5:40 p.m. • Redwood 251

R.A.D. for Men is a program designed to provide students with information, tactics, and considerations which R.A.D. Systems believes may be useful for various types of confrontational encounters perpetrated against men. This course will also include Aerosol Defense for Citizens, The Basics for Pepper Spray.

Don't miss this opportunity to participate in a self-defense & personal safety education program!

R.A.D. Systems also offers a lifetime return policy for all its participants.

For more information:

Please visit our RAD web page at:

www-admn.csun.edu/police/rad/index.htm

University Police Department
California State University, Northridge
(818) 677-7922 or 677-5820

California State University
Northridge